General information

Class Policy and Procedure

The students and the faculty of Power Leadership Institute adhere to every law regarding ethical use of other people's material, whether it is printed, video, audio, multimedia, or computer programs of any kind. It is expected that every student be honest and not copy in exams and reports. Each student should work independently in his reports and exams. He who copies shows lack of integrity that is not accepted in the secular much less in a Christian institute. Therefore, if a student is found copying, he will receive an "F" in the class.

This class will be governed according to the information of Schedule Students. Also we reserve the right to change or to modify the classes and dates, according to the needs of the teacher, the establishment, or the class. All students are responsible to be aware of such changes, which will be announced ahead of time.

Students are responsible to obtain the material of the classes missed and to stay up to date. During this course you will take short exams, according to the academic calendar. The fact that you did not study for said exam, will not be a valid reason not to take it on the day scheduled.

Important information on Book Reports and Class Projects

Please note: There are only 3 books for the whole study year (one book per trimester). The reading of these books is compulsory to finish your study year.

Each book report and class project must contain the following:

- Name of student
- Date
- Name of book read for book reports for book reports / Name of class for class projects
- Confirmation that you read the whole book (only for book reports)
- Write the three main points (takeaways) that you have learned from the book/class
- Use bullet points

All reports need to be in Word or Pdf format. Completed reports need to be emailed to admin@pli.am.

Important information on exams

All mentioned dates for exams and reports are fixed. Only in extreme circumstances will allowances be made to deviate from them. This will be done on a case-by-case basis. Students that want to apply for this allowance need to send their request to admin@pli.am. The request must contain clear reasons why the student is applying for an extension to the date and must be sent at least 1 week before the due date. Online students will receive their exam instructions by mail and complete the exam online on the assigned day.
