

Syllabus Year 3

Content

General information.....	3
Class Policy and Procedure.....	3
Important information on Book Reports and Class Projects.....	3
Important information on exams	3
Revealed Theology I (TEOR 201).....	4
Old Testament I (BIBL 101)	4
New Wine Generation (PRCA 220).....	5
Revealed Theology II (TEOR 202).....	6
Old Testament II (BIBL 102)	6
New Testament (BIBL 110).....	7
Introduction to the Five-Fold Ministry	8
Eschatology (TEOR 210)	8
Intercession and Spiritual Warfare (PRCA 140).....	9

General information

Class Policy and Procedure

The students and the faculty of Power Leadership Institute adhere to every law regarding ethical use of other people's material, whether it is printed, video, audio, multimedia, or computer programs of any kind. It is expected that every student be honest and not copy in exams and reports. Each student should work independently in his reports and exams. He who copies shows lack of integrity that is not accepted in the secular much less in a Christian institute. Therefore, if a student is found copying, he will receive an "F" in the class.

This class will be governed according to the information of Schedule Students. Also, we reserve the right to change or to modify the classes and dates, according to the needs of the teacher, the establishment, or the class. All students are responsible to be aware of such changes, which will be announced ahead of time.

Students are responsible to obtain the material of the classes missed and to stay up to date. During this course you will take short exams, according to the academic calendar. The fact that you did not study for said exam, will not be a valid reason not to take it on the day scheduled.

Important information on Book Reports and Class Projects

Please note: There are only 3 books for the whole study year (one book per trimester). The reading of these books is compulsory to finish your study year.

Each book report and class project must contain the following:

- Name of student
- Date
- Name of book read for book reports for book reports / Name of class for class projects
- Confirmation that you read the whole book (only for book reports)
- Write the three main points (takeaways) that you have learned from the book/class
- Use bullet points

All reports need to be in Word or Pdf format. Completed reports need to be emailed to admin@pli.am.

Important information on exams

All mentioned dates for exams and reports are fixed. Only in extreme circumstances will allowances be made to deviate from them. This will be done on a case-by-case basis. Students that want to apply for this allowance need to send their request to admin@pli.am. The request must contain clear reasons why the student is applying for an extension to the date and must be sent at least 1 week before the due date. Online students will receive their exam instructions by mail and complete the exam online on the assigned day.

Revealed Theology I (TEOR 201)

(Initials of course: RT1)

Course Description

Basic introduction to theology and in particular to the knowledge of God and his attributes. This course will cover qualities of God and how we should relate to Him based on these qualities. You will be taught about the glory of God, the omnipresence and omnipotence of God. The topics of Jesus' work, our relationship with the Holy Spirit, and the fear of God will also be covered.

Course Objective

- Help the student develop a closer relationship with God by knowing Him more
- To know God better through the revelation of His names
- Know the attributes of God and their implications.
- Have theological knowledge of the work of Jesus.

Course Requirements

The following requirements should be completed satisfactory in order to pass this course.

Midterm Exam

The midterm exam is composed of 50 questions. It will include True and False questions as well as Multiple Choice questions. This exam is worth 25% of the class.

Book Report

Read the book "Improving your serve" by Charles Swindol. Write the three main points (takeaways) that you have learned from this book. Use bullet points.

Book reports may be written in English or Dutch. Do not forget to write your name on the report. This report is worth 20% of your grade.

Class Project

Write the three main points (takeaways) that you have learned from this class that has impacted your life the most. Use bullet points.

The report can be written in English or Dutch. This report is worth 20% of your grade.

Final Exam

The final exam is composed of 50 questions. It covers everything that was taught during the sessions in the class. It will include True and False questions as well as Multiple Choice questions. This exam is worth 35% of the class.

Old Testament I (BIBL 101)

(Initials of course: OT1)

Course Description

In this course we will notice how throughout the Old Testament, the way is prepared for Christ, predicting it in typology and in prophecy. We will study about the Pentateuch which is composed of the first five books of the Bible written by Moses. We will also have the opportunity to take a walk-through history as revealed through the Holy Spirit to its writers giving certainty and affirming the responsibility of his fatherhood through the Divine inspiration in each of narrated and prophesied events.

Course Objective

This class will inspire students to want to know:

- Each book of the Old Testament that their faith be enriched through the different events narrated from creation,
- How sin entered the world,
- The exodus of the people of Israel,
- The different kingdoms and their kings,
- The law and the prophets and the similarity that exists with us as the spiritual Israel that we are.

Course Requirements

The following requirements should be completed satisfactory in order to pass this course.

Final Exam

The final exam is composed of 50 questions. It covers everything that was taught during the sessions in the class. It will include True and False questions as well as Multiple Choice questions. This exam is worth 100% of the class.

New Wine Generation (PRCA 220)

(Initials of course: NWG)

Course Description

In this course we will learn about Gods purpose for us to be a New Wine Generation.

Course Objective

- To learn about the need of the restoration of all things according to God's original intention.
- Identify the influence of the spirit of Greece
- To know about the apostolic reform; know the characteristics, functions and duties of the apostle
- To learn the characteristics of an apostolic church, and of the generation of New Wine that walks in the supernatural

Course Requirements

The following requirements should be completed satisfactory in order to pass this course.

Midterm Exam

The midterm exam is composed of 50 questions. It will include True and False questions as well as Multiple Choice questions. This exam is worth 40% of the class.

Class Project

Write the three main points (takeaways) that you have learned from this class that has impacted your life the most. Use bullet points.

The report can be written in English or Dutch. Do not forget to write your name on the report. This report is worth 20% of your grade.

Final Exam

The final exam is composed of 50 questions. It covers everything that was taught during the sessions in the class. It will include True and False questions as well as Multiple Choice questions. This exam is worth 40% of the class.

Revealed Theology II (TEOR 202)

(Initials of course: RT2)

Course Description

This class is the second part of a basic introduction to theology. The class is complementary to Revealed Theology I, covering additional topics such as the exclusivity of Christianity, anthropology, angels and the Kingdom of God.

Course Objective

Give the student the knowledge that every disciple of Christ must have in the basic areas of Theology

Course Requirements

The following requirements should be completed satisfactory in order to pass this course.

Midterm Exam

The midterm exam is composed of 50 questions. It will include True and False questions as well as Multiple Choice questions. This exam is worth 30% of the class.

Book Report

Read the book "Spirit of Leadership" by Dr Miles Munroe. Write the three main points (takeaways) that you have learned from this book. Use bullet points.

Book reports may be written in English or Dutch. Do not forget to write your name on the report. This report is worth 30% of your grade.

Final Exam

The final exam is composed of 50 questions. It covers everything that was taught during the sessions in the class. It will include True and False questions as well as Multiple Choice questions. This exam is worth 40% of the class.

Old Testament II (BIBL 102)

(Initials of course: OT2)

Course Description

In this second part of the study of the Old Testament, we will study the 5 poetic books as well as enter into the Minor Prophets and the Major Prophets included in 17 books ranging from Isaiah to Malachi, some of which brought messages of judgment, others that infused comfort and hope, some called to repentance with the messianic message of Jesus Christ.

Course Objective

Among others we want the student to learn about:

- The why of the suffering of the righteous.
- The depth of prayer and praise.
- Where to find moral and spiritual instruction.
- The sanctity of marital love.
- The different ways God spoke to his people through prophecy.

Course Requirements

The following requirements should be completed satisfactory in order to pass this course.

Final Exam

The final exam is composed of 50 questions. It covers everything that was taught during the sessions in the class. It will include True and False questions as well as Multiple Choice questions. This exam is worth 100% of the class.

New Testament (BIBL 110)

(Initials of course: NT)

Course Description

In this course we will study topics related to the fatherhood of God and his reflection in the church of This course is a panoramic and systematic study of the New Testament (NT). The student will be imparted knowledge about the life of Christ, the authors of the NT books, the establishment of the early church, understanding of the main ideas of the gospels, historical books and general epistles. This class will also cover the life of the apostle Paul and the epistles written by the Apostle from Romans to Philemon.

Course Objective

Upon completion of the course, the student will have knowledge about:

- The political and historical background of Palestine in the first century.
- The world political and historical background of the inter-testamentary period.
- The Jewish groups of the time of Jesus.
- The synoptic gospels.
- Jesus in the gospels.
- The Johannine Epistles
- Have a knowledge of the life of the apostle Paul
- Have a basic knowledge of each of their epistles, the doctrines main Christianity through the epistles and how they affect the church today.
- Have knowledge about the missionary journeys of the apostle.

Course Requirements

The following requirements should be completed satisfactory in order to pass this course.

Midterm Exam

The midterm exam is composed of 50 questions. It will include True and False questions as well as Multiple Choice questions. This exam is worth 50% of the class.

Final Exam

The final exam is composed of 50 questions. It covers everything that was taught during the sessions in the class. It will include True and False questions as well as Multiple Choice questions. This exam is worth 50% of the class.

Introduction to the Five-Fold Ministry

(Initials of course: IFFM)

Course Description

In this course we will learn about the purpose of the Five-Fold ministry.

Course Requirements

The following requirements should be completed satisfactory in order to pass this course.

Final Exam

The final exam is composed of 50 questions. It covers everything that was taught during the sessions in the class. It will include True and False questions as well as Multiple Choice questions. This exam is worth 100% of the class.

Eschatology (TEOR 210)

(Initials of course: ESC)

Course Description

This class is made up of a study of the last times. In it we will study the chronology of the times starting with the book of Daniel. It also includes the world empires, the end times, the rapture of the Church, the great tribulation, the antichrist, the millennium and the resurrection of the dead.

Course Objective

For the student to learn:

- The chronology of times
- Interpretation of the prophecy of the seventy weeks in Daniel
- The events of the end

Course Requirements

The following requirements should be completed satisfactory in order to pass this course.

Midterm Exam

The midterm exam is composed of 50 questions. It will include True and False questions as well as Multiple Choice questions. This exam is worth 50% of the class.

Final Exam

The final exam is composed of 50 questions. It covers everything that was taught during the sessions in the class. It will include True and False questions as well as Multiple Choice questions. This exam is worth 50% of the class.

Intercession and Spiritual Warfare (PRCA 140)

(Initials of course: ISW)

Course Description

Throughout this class, the student will understand the true purpose of intercession and the importance of having a physical body. Additionally, students will have the opportunity to understand the different effects that these factors have in the spiritual realm, encouraging the student to intercede so that the things that we establish in the spiritual may also be established in the natural.

This is an advanced course on intercession and spiritual warfare. We will examine the concepts, elements, conditions and results of spiritual warfare, using the tools that the Scriptures provide to the believer.

Course Objective

- Learn and understand what intercession is and what is its purpose.
- Learn to intercede effectively.
- Appropriate and exercise the power to bind and to loosen.
- Understand and apply the most detailed processes of spiritual warfare.
- Implement and carry out successful spiritual battles.
- Protect yourself and others adequately when carrying out spiritual warfare.

Course Requirements

The following requirements should be completed satisfactory in order to pass this course.

Book Report

Read the book "Taking our Cities for God" by John Dawson and do a report on the chapters that most impacted your life.

Book reports may be written in English or Dutch. Do not forget to write your name on the report. This report is worth 30% of your grade.

Final Exam

The final exam is composed of 50 questions. It covers everything that was taught during the sessions in the class. It will include True and False questions as well as Multiple Choice questions. This exam is worth 70% of the class.